

that such student will be acceptable for placement with any Agency, will be able to satisfy the graduation requirements of the COHP program, or will be eligible for licensure, certification or registration with state or federal programs or national credentialing organizations.